PLAN TO ATTEND THE EEI ASIAN ENERGY FINANCIAL AND INVESTMENT CONFERENCE

28-29 October 2014 • Marina Bay Sands Convention Center • Singapore International Energy Week

On October 28th and 29th Asia's energy leaders and financial decision-makers, including Kim Yin Wong from Singapore Power, Neil McGregor from Temasek and Anthony Jude from Asian Development Bank, will gather in Singapore at the launch of the Asian Energy Financial and Investment Conference, organized by Edison Electric Institute (EEI), during Singapore International Energy Week (SIEW).

EEI has held financial conferences in the U.S. for almost fifty years and in London since 1999. EEI's Conference provides the opportunity for Asian investors, analysts, bankers, and rating agencies to meet with C-level executives and heads of IR from the energy industry.

Formal company presentations from Asian, U.S., and Latin American utilities to investors and analysts will be scheduled. Many companies will host private meetings with current and potential investors.

Expert panels will present their perspectives and outlooks on Asian energy markets. Panelists include leaders from:

Adaro Coal	E.On	Macquarie	Sembcorp
AES Asia	EMA	Marsh	Singapore Power
ADB	EY	MaxPower	Skadden Arps
Black & Veatch	GDF Suez-Asia	METI	Standard & Poor's
Bloomberg	GDF Suez-Glow	Minter Ellison	Standard Chartered
Citigroup	GE Power & Water	Moodys	SunEdison
Crystal Vision	KPMG	Morgan Stanley	Temasek
DBS	Lantau Group	Navigant	Wärtsilä
Deloitte	Latham and Watkins	Risco	Wilson International Law

Conference attendees are also invited to the prestigious Platts Top 250 Asia Awards Dinner on October 28th at The Fullerton Hotel. The Top 250 Global Energy Company Rankings® will be unveiled at this time, with over 300 global energy executives present.

Don't miss this opportunity to gain a critical edge in the emerging Asian energy market. Visit www.eei.org/meetings-asianconf for more information.
